who admitted defrauding the Commonwealth of Australia and The University of Queensland, through his having contacts? Was it a matter of not what they knew, [or could do], but whom they [independently] knew, that was important? The HREOC complaint has been made, with reference to our concurrent publication, Australian Consumer Law Journal #200701 published 23 April, 2007, where all the circumstances were described and illustrated with photos.

QB had a multiple associations with The University of Queensland [UQ] as graduate and subsequent lecturer in law, specializing in Administrative Law including Natural Justice aka Due Process, or procedural Fairness. That may be ironic. UQ publicizes that QB was employed by UQ even though it did not have a position advertised. UQ states that this was because she was so fine. [Under Hay, UQ does much spin doctoring.] Another possibility is that QB's views were "clique current". QB's many associations include Dale Spender, Ted Brown, Jeff Spender, Patsy Mary Wolfe, [now Chief Judge DC], Margaret White, and Dr Michael White. These all have associations with UQ, so our Publication The University of Queensland Alumni Journal ISSN 1834-660X could be seen as a "companion journal". We live in interesting times.
